The first day of school is always a very special and memorable moment. When the first bell rang for Poppy, she not only entered the school for the first time and met new classmates and friends, but also discovered the world of comics.

In the world of art, full of rich imagination and endless possibilities, comics is the world in pictures, full of lines, colors, stories, letters and words. In this world, the ice-cream you lick says "Lick, lick". When you're stroking a cat, it gently purrs "Caress, cuddle, meow". Even fluffy baby chicks, following their mother, enthusiastically make funny sounds "cluck cluck" and "tweet tweet", sometimes Poppy likes to "tweet" with her friends too.

Between each "tweet tweet" and "Cuddle, meow", between each drawing and picture, there are endless possibilities and ways you can change and prettify a story by using your imagination.

Who is Poppy? She's a little girl, who explores the world, meets new people, other creatures and discovers different things. She has plenty of friends and good people around her (friendly people always have a lot of friends, right?). Poppy quite likes going to school, and when she's home - she always helps her mummy. She likes to share her sweets with others and do her homework, she also loves her friends. Moreover, she is kind and friendly to everyone - this is also possible in comics.

Friendliness of the people and their curiosity leads to cooperation. Nobody in the world knows anything about everything, but together we know everything about anything. Well, almost everything. Just like Matjaz Bertonec, who wrote and drew Poppy's stories of adventure and Jelena Bertonec, who put the right colors together and made comics lighter, happier, and more joyful.

The comics about Poppy were published in a magazine "Trobenica" from 2005 to 2010. And now all of her stories are collected in one book, which is awesome.

So, Poppy's adventures are now available for the generic public. And where is Poppy now? Has she grown up and become a firefighter, as she wanted, when she accidentally extinguished a firefighter instead of a fire? Not quite, at the end of the book she speaks up again. She has not changed and promises to certainly be back soon.

A FRIENDLY GENTLEMAN HELD THE DOOR OPEN FOR HER, SO SHE SAID

WHEN SOMEONE IS FRIENDLY AND HELPS YOU, ALWAYS THANK THEM. USE THE WORD "PLEASE", WHEN YOU'RE ASKING FOR HELP.

THE END.
